

- In the last three recorded financial years, more than three quarters of government contracts awarded went to SMEs
- Small businesses (11-50 employees) win around a third of the government contracts each year
- On average 80% of government contracts are awarded to suppliers located in Northern Ireland
- On average two thirds of the government contracts awarded are for supplies and services contracts, and the remaining third for construction contracts